INTRODUCTION TO THE SPEAKER

Chee Keong LOW ('CK') retired as an Associate Professor in Corporate Law with research interests in corporate governance and the regulatory framework of capital markets on 1 August 2022 after more than three decades at The Chinese University of Hong Kong Business School.

A non-practising Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya, CK is currently a member of the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform in Hong Kong. Amongst others he previously served on the Listing Committee of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong; the statutory Advisory Committee of the Accounting and Financial Reporting Council as well as on the Securities and Futures Appeals Tribunal.

CK is a Council member of the Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute where he serves as the Chairman of its Qualifications Committee. A selection of his papers is available at www.ssrn.com/author=332882.

BLURB FOR THE TALK

In association with The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute ('HKCGI') this seminar seeks to bridge the theory-practice divide by highlighting the importance of 'What? Why? How?' of good governance with reference to charities which fund raising activities remain largely unregulated despite its significant contributions to society. The seminar concludes with an introduction to Pathways to membership of the HKCGI and an overview of the rewarding and satisfying career that lies ahead as a Governance Professional or a Company Secretary.
